LB 1023, 1085

difficulties. It makes the tasks assigned these animal technicians somewhat subjective according to the practitioner they work for. There is a lack of transferability of the certificate from other...from this state to other states; and...or even to other practices. So this would provide for a veterinary technician licensure and the practice act for veterinary technicians will then be established and it's supported by everybody within the industry, the Nebraska Veterinary Association, the Technicians Association. We've had approval from everybody that we've talked to about this. So I would urge your support of this amendment. Thank you.
